

Drew Darby biography for introduction at event

State Representative Drew Darby was elected to the Texas House of Representatives in 2006 and today is one of most respected members of the state legislature.

Drew has served on the powerful House Committee on Appropriations in every session since his election. He is chairman of the Subcommittee on Natural Resources, Business & Economic Development and Regulatory Agencies and vice-chairman of the House Committee on Transportation.

Drew grew up in San Angelo and attended the University of Texas in 1969. He holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a major in finance and earned his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law in 1971.

Drew and his wife, Clarisa, celebrate twenty-five years of marriage. They have five children and two grandchildren.